

PUBLIC PHILOSOPHY & HOMELESSNESS

MARCH 21ST

TIME: 9:30AM – 6:45PM

LOCATON: SUGDEN HALL HOSPITALITY BUILDING, ROOM 111 AND 114

The Philosophy program wishes to invite you to attend a special one-day conference event that aims to discuss valuable academic and practical dimensions of homelessness. The event will bring together local community experts, FGCU faculty, and invited academic keynote speakers to foster the dialogue on homelessness.

Community speakers include Janet Bartos (Lee Coalition for the Homeless), Arlene Goldberg (SWFL Community Foundation's LGBT Fund) and Roger Mercado (Community Cooperative).

For more information and a complete program, please visit:
<http://www.fgcu.edu/CAS/Philosophy/newsandevents.html>

Keynote Speakers

---

Bio-Politics & Irregular Life: Public Philosophy, Precarity & Homelessness in a Neoliberal Era
by
Kevin Jobe (PhD)

---

Homeless on Campus: The Experiences of Homelessness among UCF Students
by
Amy Donley (PhD)

---

Exiting Homelessness and 'Post Secular' Society in the US and Japan
by
Matthew Marr (PhD)